II. Project Information

Please provide information on the project that the company is seeking an Enterprise Zone incentive for. This information will be presented to the parties that evaluate if the granting of the incentive is necessary and proper.

1. Project description:

We would like to add a 20,000 square foot warehouse that will allow us more production space to expand out production capacity to meet demand. In addition to to further capacity, it will also allow Blue Label Packaging Co to expand into other packaging products, like shrink sleeves.

2. Business's reasons for requesting tax incentives (be quantitatively specific as possible):

As we are growing our business organically, we have to build capacity before we have the business for it. Any financial help in the near term allows us to invest more in our employees and equipment as we expand the business. The tax incentive makes Lancaster a clear choice for our expansion as we continue to grow.

3. Please list any additional information, such as internships or other agreements, your company intends to offer to the school system if seeking a term longer than ten years or an exemption greater than 60% if the project occurs within a township or greater than 75% if within a municipality:

We currently employ two interns year-round (one in high school and one at the college level). We'd like to expand this program and offer hands on technical training, both in graphic design and marketing, to qualified students. We are also open to the idea of providing used computers and graphic design hardware to the school system if appropriate.

4. Project location:

- a. Address: 3750 Lancaster New Lexington Rd SE

b. City, State, Zip: Lancaster, Ohio 43130

c. Parcel number(s): 053-50119-82, 027-00610-00

5. Market value of existing facility (as determined for local property tax):
$1,425,930

6. Estimate the amount to be invested by the company to establish, expand, renovate or occupy the project by expense category:

Type	Amount
Land	$
Acquisition of building(s):	$
Facility Renovation:	$200,000
New Construction:	$800,000
Machinery & Equipment:	$500,000
Furniture & Fixtures:	$
Inventory:	$
TOTAL PROJECT INVESTMENT	$1,500,000

7. The project anticipates breaking ground/starting construction on May 1st, 2019 and estimates completing the project on October 30, 2019, provided a tax exemption is granted.

8. Estimate the business's new and retained positions that will occur as a result of this project if the tax exemption is granted:

	Full – Time	Part – Time	Temporary / Seasonal

Jobs to be Retained	3,052,000	40,000

at Project Site Payroll:
-----------------------------	--	--	--

10. State the time frame of the projected hiring: 3 years.

III. Additional Requirements

Please initial on the following lines to demonstrate that you understand the following conditions of the Enterprise Zone tax incentive should your application be considered for tax abatement. This is intended to be an exhaustive or all-encompassing list of terms and other terms and conditions may be present in the final contract.

1. The exemption commences the first year for which the real property would first be taxable were that property not exempted from taxation. No exemption shall commence before the start of construction or other approved activities nor extend beyond the term of the agreement. Initials: AMS
2. The applicant shall pay such real and tangible personal property taxes as are not exempted under this agreement and are charged against such property and shall file all tax reports and returns as required by law. If applicant fails to pay such taxes or file such returns and reports, all incentives granted under the agreement are rescinded beginning with the year for which such taxes are charged or such reports or returns are required to be filed and thereafter. Initials: AMS
3. The applicant hereby certifies that at the time of this application that the company requesting the Enterprise Zone incentive does not owe any delinquent real or tangible personal property taxes to any taxing authority of the State of Ohio, and does not owe delinquent taxes for which the company is liable under Chapter 5727., 5733., 5735., 5739., 5741., 5743., 5747., or 5753. of the Revised Code, or, if such delinquent taxes are owed, the company is currently paying the delinquent taxes pursuant to a delinquent tax contract enforceable by the State of Ohio or an agent or instrumentality thereof, has filed a petition in bankruptcy under 11 U.S.C.A. 101, et seq., or such a petition has been filed against the company. For the purposes of the certification, delinquent taxes are taxes that remain unpaid on the latest day prescribed for payment without penalty under the chapter of the Revised Code governing payment of those taxes. Initials: AMS
4. If the application for tax exemption is approved but the company materially fails to fulfill its obligations outlined in this application, other than with respect to the number of employee positions estimated to be created or retained under this agreement, or if the Fairfield County Commissioners determines that the certification as to delinquent taxes required by this agreement is fraudulent, the Fairfield County Commissioners may terminate or modify the exemptions from taxation. Initials: AMS
5. That the company shall meet with the Tax Incentive Review Council annually and shall provide to the Tax Incentive Review Council any information reasonably required by the council to evaluate the company's compliance with the agreement, including returns or annual reports filed pursuant to section 5711.02 or 5727.08 of the Ohio Revised Code if requested by the council.

Initials: MM

6. That the number of employee positions created or retained by the applicant is not equal to or greater than 75% of the number of employee positions estimated to be created or retained under this agreement during a three-year period, that the Fairfield County Commissioners have the right to request that the company repay the amount of taxes on property that would have been payable had the property not been exempted from taxation under this agreement during that three-year period. In addition, the Fairfield County Commissioners may terminate or modify the exemptions from taxation granted under this agreement. Initials: MM
- The company understands that if granted the incentive that the business will remit a monitoring fee of 1% of the benefit received of the incentive (minimum of $500/max of $2,500) yearly and will provide the Ohio Development Services Agency with a one-time application fee of $750. Initials: MM

Submission of this application expressly authorizes the Fairfield County Commissioners, or its agents, to contact the Ohio Environmental Protection Agency to confirm statements contained within this application and to review applicable confidential records. As part of this application, the business may also be required to directly request from the Ohio Department of Taxation or complete a waiver form allowing the Ohio Department of Taxation to release specific tax records to the local jurisdictions considering the incentive request. The applicant further agrees to supply additional information upon request.

The applicant affirmatively covenants that the information contained in and submitted with this application is complete and correct and is aware of the ORC Sections 9.66(C)(1) and 2921.13(D)(1) penalties for falsification which could result in the forfeiture of all current and future economic development assistance benefit as well as a fine of not more than $1,000 and/or a term of imprisonment of not more than six months.
